REFLECTION: We love to complicate things. We dress things up over ornately. We worry about things still to come and that we can't do anything about. We tie ourselves in knots trying to explain things. But everything is simple – as St. Therese herself said – it all comes down to love. Jesus sums up the Law and the Prophets as loving God and our neighbour – but we want exceptions, excuses and get out clauses. There aren't any. It is SIMPLE. Love God and love your neighbour.
